

At Swiss Organic Partners AG we like to put our hands dirty and are visionaries on innovation. We are a fast growing startup operating in the cannabis industry based in Zürich, Switzerland. We monitor everything from seeds to shelf: we are farmers, manufacturers and sellers.

We combine tradition with innovation: with the power of nature we manufacture 100% organic hemp products and make them easily accessible to everyone. We sell our products internationally under our own brand ALPINOLS as well as white label and bulk for a variety of different international trade customers.

We are looking for a sales enthusiast who will be an integral part of our expanding business and contributing to the expansion of our products across France. This position is on a commission based only.

Tasks

Please only apply if:

- You are RESIDENT and ENTITLED TO WORK in France
- You already POSSESS A BASIC CANNABIDIOL KNOWLEDGE and experience
- French is your mother tongue or speak the language at professional level
- Your English is fluent

As a freelance sales / sales agent, you will acquire, support customers and arrange business for our company on a commission basis with the intention to build your own company in the long run.

- Acquisition of new customers to drive sales and company revenue
- Build brand loyalty and promote our portfolio
- Manage stakeholders and conduct price negotiation
- Provide detailed advice on our industry and products
- Implementation of sales-promoting sales and marketing campaigns
- Participation in our sales strategy
- Joining fairs and trade show when required
- Competitor analysis and monitor market trends
- Be able to provide recommendations on advertising material, marketing measures as well as for product development

Requirements

- As a freelance sales / sales agent, you will acquire, support customers and arrange business for our company on a commission basis with the intention to build your own company in the long run.
- Acquisition of new customers to drive sales and company revenue
- Build brand loyalty and promote our portfolio
- Manage stakeholders and conduct price negotiation
- Provide detailed advice on our industry and products
- Implementation of sales-promoting sales and marketing campaigns
- Participation in our sales strategy
- Joining fairs and trade show when required
- Competitor analysis and monitor market trends
- Be able to provide recommendations on advertising material, marketing measures as well as for product development

Benefits

- Build your own business
- Long-term commission income
- Work with the EU pioneer of the cannabis business
- We will teach you everything about the product, inside out but you must have worked in the cannabidiol industry before
- Growth with a young, dynamic company and team

Do you have a knack for building business relationships? Are you sales driven? If yes, then, we want to hear from you!

- Write a short paragraph about yourself and why you are the right person for this position (without a motivation paragraph, your application won't be considered)
- Send us your resume in English

Please apply through this website